

www.lowcarboncairngorms.org

Event Title:	Community Wood Fuel
Aim:	To provide communities interested in starting a wood fuel initiative with the key issues involved with supplying & running different types of wood fuel installations, including potential business models
Target Audiences:	Community Groups / Local Community members / Local Landowners / End Users (Managers public buildings)
Location & dates:	Saturday 28th November 2009 - Boat of Garten Community Hall Saturday, January 2010 (date to be fixed) - Victoria and Albert Hall, Ballater
Duration	Half Day – 10am – 12.30pm

Programme:

Introduction to event and the Climatic project

Establish Policy and public demand for wood fuel and the industries viability – it is here to stay (Alvie presentation)

- Fuel resource & Demand levels
- Environmental & Financial incentives
- Scale & Processes – fuel types
- Case study – economics using a best practice exemplar/site visit location

How is it done

- Why do it
- Business model
- Equipment needed
- Training requirements
- Benefits to the community
- Future potential

Case Study

- Why do it
- Business model
- Equipment & Training
- Benefits to the community/users
- Future potential
- Issues & how they were overcome

Discussion Panel

Summary

Speakers' details:

Clive Bowman, UHI Millennium Institute – Clim-ATIC Project Manager

Steven Cribb, Highland Birchwoods - RHASS Project Manger

Jake Willis, CWA Project Officer Laggan Area