

www.lowcarboncairngorms.org

|                              |   |
|------------------------------|---|
| Event Title:          | Wood fuel Supply Chains and Quality  |
| Aim:                  | To ensure all parts of a supply chain understand the issues and implications surrounding wood fuel supply and quality             |
| Target Audiences:     | Landowners / Wood fuel suppliers / Timber merchants / System suppliers & installers / End Users ( Inc. Managers public buildings) |
| Location &amp; dates: | Glenlivet Estate - 16 th November 2009Aboyne School – 21 st November 2009                               |
| Duration              | Full Day – 10am – 4pm   |

Programme:

Introduction to event and the Climatic project

Importance of Biomass/renewable energy

- Environment – global warming
- Biomass – sustainability
  - carbon neutral
  - responsiveness to local factors
  - Wood fuel
  - Fuel resource
  - Demand – Heat Mapping
- Business opportunities

Lunch

Supply chain and fuel quality module

Financial Incentives- grants

Site Visit

Summary

Speakers' details:

Clive Bowman, UHI Millennium Institute – Clim-ATIC Project Manager

Clive.bowman@perth.uhi.ac.uk

Steven Cribb, Highland Birchwoods - RHASS Project Manger

Stephen.Cribb@highlandbirchwoods.co.uk

Irvine Flett, Consultant

Willie Beattie, Forestry Commission Scotland – Highland Wood Fuel Officer

williebeattie@forestry.gsi.gov.uk